Description:

Firearms & Freedom aims to keep subscribers informed on gun rights and 2nd Amendment issues that impact their right to keep and bear arms.

The subscribers to this list are seeking information related to firearms, ammunition, and gun accessories as well as threats to their Second Amendment rights. These individuals have made online transactions in the form of a political donation, a purchase of a gun related item, or a magazine subscription, all from a brand name retailer.

All are gun owners and enthusiasts receiving information on these topics several times per week. This opt-in list is new to the market and is a master file consisting of segments from multiple sources that have been combined to market to these firearms enthusiasts under one brand.

Subscribers will respond to messages similar to those of the NRA and other pro-gun organizations. Ted Nugent and similar outspoken hunters continue to interest the members of this list.
