Description:

Political causes have benefitted greatly from the response of these donors and activists who are actively concerned with the direction of the United States and demonstrate their passionate feelings by signing petitions to their elected officials, filling out surveys and donating heavily to causes of a like-mind. They consider themselves movement conservatives on domestic policy issues, but also have strong feelings on issues pertaining to national security and international affairs. Most members of this list have a strong affinity to President Donald Trump and the Make America Great Again movement.
